Is It Time to Go Green in 2009?

I have always been the biggest fan of our hard copy newsletter. I read it from cover to cover, tacked it up to my office wall so that I didn't miss any of the monthly events, kept all the issues so that I could go back and reread it when putting together outside sales calls or my marketing plan, but now it think it is time for a change. With raising costs to publish and distribute, longer and longer delivering times from the post office and in an effort to be environmentally responsible, I think that an electronic newsletter is the way of our future.

What's in it for you?

ON TIME

The on line newsletter will be posted to our web site on the first of every month. No more missing events because you received your newsletter to late to attend.

COLOR

The on line newsletter will be available in full color.

ARCHIVED ON LINE

The copies of the newsletter will be archived for one year on the web site. You will be able to go back to reread your favorite copies at anytime.

AVAILABLE WHEN YOU ARE

You will receive a notice that the newsletter has been posted on the web site. You can click on to view at anytime.

GO GREEN

The on line newsletter will save paper, time and money.

Get Your Message to the Members FASTER

You can get your message to the members faster, cheaper and timelier. Deadline times for your news articles and on line advertising will be extended since we will not be printing or mailing. We will be outlining our new on line advertising program next month.

This on line newsletter only works if we have your email address. Please go to the website at www.hechamber.com to sign up or call the chamber office with your email address. We do not want anyone to miss out on electronic communications from the Chamber Office. Please let us know your thoughts by taking the brief survey enclosed in this newsletter. You can fax it back to the Chamber office at (847) 781-9172. Thank you so much for your time.

Standing Room Only

The elegance of the Stonegate Banquet and Conference Centre was a perfect backdrop to the standing room only crowd that gathered to hear Mayor McLeod deliver his annual State of the Village address.

A brief video opened the event showcasing the many companies that have built and are in process of building significant corporate headquarters throughout the Village. The Mayor gave an optimistic update of the projects that had become stalled but are anticipated to build when the economy rebounds, appreciating that once folks have "reached a certain age" they are aware that it is a cyclic occurrence. The Village of Hoffman Estates has a resource that continues to draw interest, buildable acreage. The Mayor reminisced about the many projects that were proposed for the western portion of the Village before the successful negotiations that drew Sears Roebuck and Company to build their massive merchandising headquarters.

Updates on the full exchange at Barrington and Higgins, STAR rail system, CN & E&J purchase and Meijer's projected building timeline were also discussed.

The Right Attitude is the Key to Success

Struggling economy? Difficult times ahead? While many companies are contemplating their own uncertain future, Admin and Beyond is determined to find ways to turn it around, and help others do the same. The Women's Career Makeover event, sponsored by Admin and Beyond, January 24th, set out to prove that, with the right resources and the right attitude, anyone can rise above their circumstances to be successful.

This event, featuring personalized consultations from 15 organizations on such topics as: makeup (Mary Kay); hair and nails (Mario Tricoci); dressing for success (Dressbarn); body language (Nancy Moran and Associates); teaching your mind tools for success (Greater Achievements Hypnosis); job loss grief counseling (Rene Czerwinski MA, LCPC, NCC, CH); continuing education (Harper College); job search and skills training (Illinois WorkNet); resume review (St. Hubert Job and Networking Ministry); networking (Peak Marketing and Sales); financial planning for a crisis (National City); life after COBRA (RR Financial); how to obtain affordable legal advice (Pre-Paid Legal Services); starting your own business at 50+(Bizstarters); and business advocacy (Hoffman Estates Chamber of Commerce), was designed to inform, inspire and prepare women for career transition, job search and general well being through these tough economic times.

Expo-esque in appearance, the environment was made to feel inviting and familiar by accommodating personalized one-on-one consultations. The resume review area alone was manned by 11 HR Managers, thanks to Bob Podgorski of St. Hubert Job and Networking Ministry. Event speaker booths were arranged to address only 6 people at a given time. Initially, this had some large-group speakers feeling a bit out of their element, however, post-event feedback noted a high level of satisfaction from both exhibitors and attendees, who felt the personal interaction made the experience all the more rewarding. Exhibitors were even seen working together, beyond organizational boundaries. Enthusiastic attendees stayed 3 hours, or more, taking advantage of all the expert advice available.

Informational in nature, this event took a fun detour as Mario Tricoci, Mary Kay and Dressbarn teamed up to do some "complete makeovers" for the beautiful women at Advance Preschool who, so graciously, volunteered as Dress for Success models. A number of attendees also joined in the fun receiving cutting, styling, and makeup application during the event! The day concluded with eager anticipation and applause as the "Women In Need of Growing Stronger (WINGS)" fundraiser raffle portion of the event gave attendees and exhibitors alike, an opportunity to win great prizes donated by local businesses and fellow exhibitors. Raffle items awarded include: a leather briefcase packed with business essentials, a Dell laptop computer with bag, jewelry, spa packages, computer training, fitness memberships, pro sports tickets, CDs, author-signed books, women's hand tools, gift baskets, gift cards, sports tickets, and thousands of dollars worth of career transition, business and financial coaching. Altogether, $2,100 was raised for the WINGS domestic violence program, $1693 of which was raised through the inspiring efforts of the Hilton Garden Inn of Hoffman Estates, in response to this event.

"What started out as an idea, evolved over time...each exhibitor becoming increasingly more instrumental to its success," states Vickie Andersen, Managing Partner of Admin and Beyond, "and, as we watched the tearfulness and guarded hearts of our attendees give way to smiles and excitement, we knew, together we had made a valuable difference, if only for a select few."

Hoffman Estates gets NEW Musical Tartan Event & Parade

The Village of Hoffman Estates is proud to announce it will be getting its very own Tattoo, starting in 2009. No, not body art, but a Military Tattoo, one of the mainstays of festival entertainment in Europe, will claim a new home at the Sears Centre Arena on April 18, 2009 at 7:00 P.M. "This is one of the most unique and entertaining attractions available and we are proud to have the Heartland International Tattoo as one of the major events in celebrating Hoffman Estates 50th Anniversary", says William D. McLeod, Mayor of Hoffman Estates.

The 2009 Heartland International Tattoo Music & Dance Festival is one of the premier indoor musical and pageantry events in the Midwestern United States. "Given its diversity of acts and a cast of more than 350 performers, this show makes a great family outing" said Heartland International Tattoo Executive Producer, Michael Th. Embrey. "There's something in this show for anyone from eight to eighty." Featuring an international cast of military and civilian performers including five bagpipe bands, championship level brass band, drum and bugle corps, international dance ensembles and precision musical and pageantry related acts, this is the ultimate in entertainment. For more information visit www.heartlandtattoo.org; to purchase tickets to the Heartland Tattoo visit www.searscentre.com

In addition to the Heartland International Tattoo, the Village's 50th Anniversary will be celebrated with a Tartan Day Parade, British Car Show and Celebration of Nations. The parade will be on Saturday morning, April 18, 2009 kicking off at 10:00am from Eisenhower Jr. High and concluding at 12:00 Noon at Village Hall on Hassell Road. The parade features a variety of bands and marchers celebrating not only the Scottish heritage but also the rich diversity of nations in our community. Please join us at Village Hall at 12:00 Noon for the "Celebration of Nations" where various cultures will proudly display their heritage.

There is still time to form a group, make a float or bring your local musical talents and join the parade. There is NO cost to join the parade and no cost to visit the Celebration of Nations. Hilton Garden Inn Hoffman Estates Presents W.I.N.G.S. with a Check for $1,693

Mark Stangle, Front Office Supervisor of the Hilton Garden Inn Hoffman Estates, recently presented Rebecca Darr of W.I.N.G.S. (Women In Need Growing Stronger) with a check for $1,693.00

Hilton Garden Inn Hoffman Estates representatives present a check for $1693 to Rebecca Darr of W.I.N.G.S.

"It was a great pleasure raising this money for W.I.N.G.S.," Stangle said. "It is a terrific cause and my team and I challenged each other to exceed our goal of $1,500." Each year, Sage Hospitality Resources, the management company that runs the Hilton Garden Inn, selects four charities to raise money for.

"Our company takes great pride in giving back to the community," Stangle said. Each year, Sage Hospitality raises money for three national charities and one local charity. The fourth quarter is always designated for a local charity. "This year the team selected W.I.N.G.S.," explained Assistant General Manager Jason Kretch.

I'd like you to know: AgingInfoUSA is a non-profit organization that provides training workshops and programs designed to educate and empower healthcare and business professionals as well as family caregivers. We offer consultation services for healthcare organizations and businesses about resources available to their staff and clients. Our team can create and implement specialized training programs designed to coach managers on topics related to: Caregiving Resources, Sensitivity Training and Decreasing FMLA leave for Family Caregivers through Resource Education.

Interesting facts: Between AgingInfoUSA's four Directors we offer close to 60 years of combined experience in the Health Care field. AgingInfoUSA's President is a noted author and national speaker on caregiving and aging issues.

The best business advice I ever heard: All the client can say is "no" and then you either give up or try a different approach.

I'd like you to know: From classic favorites such as fried rice and pod thai, to more adventurous fare like Pork Belly and Smoky Tofu, Lily Garden serves delicious, authentic Chinese and Asian cuisine even better than you can find in Chinatown. This neighborhood favorite specializes in Cantonese cuisine of the south of China, in addition to having dishes from Mongolia, Japan and Thailand, to name a few. Extras include daily lunch specials and dim sum, too!

Interesting facts: Cantonese dishes are the most famous, and often considered the best in Chinese cuisine, emphasizing the freshness of the ingredients rather than relying on heavy sauces or too much oil to give flavor.

The way I plan to participate in the Chamber is: We hosted a very successful Chit 'n Chat last November and plan on doing it again in November 2009. We also support Chamber fundraisers, including advertising in the Chamber's 2009 Community Guide.
